LOCATION

Leith Links district is a desirable, residential area northeast of the city centre, and is within proximity of Leith, The Shore and Portobello Promenade. It is famous for its open green spaces and recreational facilities nearby, including Leith Links public park, which has a community croft, children's play areas, sports facilities and is frequented by family & friends, dog walkers, and fitness enthusiasts alike, and the Water of Leith Walkway, which provides riverside walks and cycle rides out to the west. Local shops cater for everyday needs, with a Tesco supermarket (at the foot of Leith Walk) and Lidl's nearby. The Shore area offers a vast array of popular restaurants and cafes, with Ocean Terminal within easy reach offering high street stores, food court and cafes, as well as a cinema complex and gym. Leith Walk, Easter Road, and Great Junction Street all lie within around a mile's radius, offering a wealth of restaurants, cafés, bars, and shops. Regular buses run to and from the city centre along Leith Links, Restalrig Road, and Lochend Road, with further routes accessible from nearby Leith Walk and Easter Road, and with the new Tram extension there is a another convenient connection through to town and the airport. The city bypass and main motorway networks are also within easy reach.
